Inspector Corby of the Health Board has had the refuse and garbage cleaned from Glenwood Avenue during the week and greatly improved the appearance of that busy thoroughfare. Whatever work about the town that Mr. Corby undertakes is generally well done, and it is probably because he gives it his personal attention.

Pistol shots in the neighborhood of Mellor's Hotel had the effect of bringing the police there on a run on Sunday night. It was learned, however, that no murder had been committed, but that a colored man was shooting at a number of dogs that were disturbing his slumbers. The animals escaped unin-

Did Not Think He Was a Married Man. Charles Sickels, a carpenter in the employ of Charles Callan, and who boarded with Mrs. Grimm on Spruce Street, came home to dinner on Tuesday and found his wife awaiting him. Sickels came to Bloomfield about one year ago and secured employment with Cooper & Ackerman. His fellow-workmen thought he was a single man, and did not know that he left a wife and two children in Freehold. Sickels was a dashing young man and became a great favorite with the fair sex. Mrs. Sickels would not leave Bloomfield without her husband, so he accompanied her.

The Truck Company's Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of Essex Hook and Ladder Company was held last Tuesday evening. Thomas Hayes, who has been janitor of the resignation was accepted. His successor will be appointed by the Board of Trustees on Tuesday evening. The sale of five shares of the Company's stock in the Bloomfield Building and Loan Association was ordered. A committee was appointed for the purpose of purchasing a new pool table.

Brookdale Notes. The citizens of Brookdale held a meeting in the school-house in Brookdale on Tuesday evening to agree on a candidate to support at the Republican primary meeting of the Second Ward. The contest was between George Fisher and Wilbur M. Brokaw, both well-known residents of Brookdaie. Twenty-three voters were present. James, M. Van Winkle presided. The first ballot resulted as follows: George Fisher 19, Wilbur M. Brokaw 4. A motion was made and passed unanimously endorsing George Fisher for the Republican nomination for member of the Township Committee from the Second Ward. Read Schener & Co.'s new advertisement Adet.
